have died while serving in Hong Kong and China, or who are buried in Hong Kong having been Prisoners of War elsewhere

Volume 3

8 December 1941 to 29 August 1945

Compiled for the Branch's Centenary in 2021 by

Lieutenant Colonel Nigel A. Collett

Vice Chairman, Commemoration & Comradeship, with the assistance of Mr. Sin Ting Kwong and Ms. Irene Lau

Notes

This list of deaths and of memorials in the cemeteries of Hong Kong is compiled in order of date of death.

It has been compiled from the following sources:

- The Commonwealth War Graves Commission's lists of graves and memorials for Hong Kong provided by Mr. Morris Cheung, Senior Gardener, Hong Kong.
- The personal guidance and advice of historian Mr. Tony Banham, and the Rolls of Honour published in his three books, Not the Slightest Chance: The Defence of Hong Kong, 1941; We Shall Suffer There: Hong Kong's Defenders Imprisoned, 1942–45; and The Sinking of the Lisbon Maru.
- The list of military burials in Hong Kong collected by the year 1997 by the staff of Headquarters British Forces Hong Kong. This was donated to the Branch in July 2021 by Mr Stephen Verralls, President of the Hong Kong Branch of the Orders and Medals Research Society. It had originally been given to him by Mr Colin Aitchison, RA, late photographer of Joint Services Public Relations Staff, Hong Kong, who rescued it from being destroyed when the Garrison left. This list appears in places to be based upon independent research, in other places to be based upon a reading of gravestones in the Happy Valley cemetery. It is in some cases preferable to other sources, in others it is mistaken, and there are many typographical errors. It must be used with caution.

- Patricia Lim, Forgotten Souls: A Social History of the Hong Kong Cemetery (Hong Kong; Hong Kong University Press, 2011 and 2013). There is much detail here of the individuals whose tombs she lists and discusses.
- Alan Harfield, British and Indian Armies on the China Coast, 1785-1985 (?London: A&J Partnership, 1990).
- The website Hong Kong Memory, containing details and photographs of the Colonial Cemetery in Happy Valley, provided mostly by Patricia Lim, at: https://www.hkmemory.hk/MHK/collections/hong_kong_cemetery/about/index.html. This is a marvellous resource, but it is still wrong in several places, mostly due to misinterpretation of military detail where inscriptions are unreadable.
- Various internet sites, including gwulo.com. Wikipedia, Wikiwand, Pinterest, and Army and Navy lists, listing details of units and ships.

This text contains items that are doubtful (these are marked with a ?) or have been misrepresented or are wrong, which are shown in square brackets. Alternatives are shown with a / .

There are two Appendices to this Volume:

- Appendix 1 - the Hong Kong Garrison in December 1941.
- Appendix 2 - formations and units of those commemorated in Hong Kong which were not part of the Hong Kong garrison in December 1941.

His Company became divided in an attack on Mount Butler and he led a part of it to capture the hill at bayonet point. After three hours. owing to the superior numbers of the enemy. the position became untenable. C.S.M. Osborn and a small group covered the withdrawal and when their turn came to fall back he single-handedly engaged the enemy, exposing himself to heavy enemy fire to cover their retirement. Later, the Company was cut off and completely surrounded. Several enemy grenades were thrown which C.S.M. Osborn picked up and threw back. When one landed in a position where it was impossible to pick it up, he threw himself upon it and was instantly killed. His self-sacrifice undoubtedly saved the lives of many of his comrades.
